

The 3 of 7 Project Creed

In times of distress or uncertainty there is a special breed of person, ready to face any challenge and accomplish any mission. A common human with an uncommon desire to succeed.

Forged by adversity.

I AM THAT PERSON

I accept the responsibility that is bestowed upon me and understand that my chosen way of life is a privilege that I must earn every day. My loyalty to my team is beyond reproach. I will humbly serve my fellow man, always ready to defend those who are unable to defend themselves. I do not seek recognition for my actions and I place the welfare of others before my own.

I serve with honor on and off the battlefield of life. The ability to control my emotions, regardless of circumstance sets me apart. Uncompromising integrity is my standard. My character and honor are steadfast. My word is my bond. I expect to lead and be led. In the absence of orders I will take charge, lead my team and accomplish the mission. I will lead by example in all situations.

I will never quit. I persevere and thrive on adversity. My team expects me to be physically harder and mentally stronger than our opponents. If knocked down I will get back up, EVERY TIME.

I will draw on every remaining ounce of strength to accomplish the mission. I am never out of the fight.

I demand discipline and innovation from myself. Mission success depends on me. I will constantly sharpen my skill, proficiency and attention to detail. My training is never complete.

I will train like I fight. I stand ready to bring the full spectrum of my knowledge, skill and ability to bear in order to achieve my mission and accomplish the goals established by my team.

The execution of my duties will be swift and efficient, guided by the very principles I have sworn to uphold.
